Hello Cousins, Kin, and Other Readers

Chardon, OH

Many of us are looking forward to the upcoming 2017 HFFA Reunion in Hannibal. Our running number of registrations as we enter February is 20, and I know a lot more will be coming in. Matter of fact, mine and Rose's are not in yet. All the information about the reunion is on our web site: www.hfrey.org I'll include a registration form in this newsletter, but one is available on the web site as well.

I'll try to get the next issue of the newsletter out earlier in May than usual so that everyone will have at least one more reminder about the registration deadline. But, please make it easier on those who are doing the planning and get your registration in as soon as you can in Feb., Mar. or Apr.

This will be the last Newsletter that some of you will be receiving. If your membership renewals are not sent in, your name will be taken off our mailing list, USPS and email. You will not be getting the HFFA Journal either. To keep in contact with HFFA, please send in your renewal, only $25 per year.

Sincerely,

Mike Speers

Tromping Around Cemeteries in KC by Carol Reinke

I started this journey in July, 2016 with my daughter, Janelle. We decided to give ancestry.com a try with their 2-week free trial promotion. Here we are 6 months, and 1 DNA test later, deep into our research.

My husband and I winter in Mesa, Arizona and decided, with Janelle (of course) to make a side trip to Kansas City, Missouri on our way to our winter home and visit the area where my ancestors called home.

We stopped at Memorial Park Cemetery, Pleasant Hill Primitive Baptist Cemetery, Aker Cemetery and Boone-Hays Cemetery where my "mysterious" great grandmother, Ida Bell Green-Fry is buried. We are having a hard time trying to find information on her and why she is buried there. The hunt goes on!

Throughout this wonderful journey I've often wondered, what would my mother think about all this new information I've learned about her family. I bet she'd be just as amazed as I have been.

HFFA is Now an International Organization

Greetings from Germany. I'm Michele Winter, and Hans Heinrich Frey was my 7th GGF by way of Sarah Elizabeth Frey, who married Henry Clowser II, which eventually led to Martha Ann Clowser marrying Josiah W. Cooper, their son John Henry Cooper's birth, and John's venturing out of VA to go to IA, probably to homestead. My mother, Mary Ellen Cooper, came from John Henry Cooper's line. She married a Winter in the Sibley/Matlock, IA area, and they both moved to California, where I was born, along with two brothers.

I worked with the Dept. of Defense overseas as a teacher for 25 years, retiring in 2015. My husband continues to work for DoD. We met in Wuerzburg, Germany in 2000 and got married 2013 in Denmark, when I turned 60 and my husband 70. It was my first marriage. Prior to marriage I had done quite a lot of traveling, and now my husband and I own a motor home, wohnmobile, and we camp all over Europe. We hope to remain here in retirement, coming full circle with my German ancestors' experience, to include learning a new language.

I became interested in genealogy in 2014 when I found out I had inherited a kidney disease from my mother and her mother, who was a McMakin. I wanted to trace the disease as far as possible, which led me to many new discoveries, friends and family.

Hans Heinrich Frey is from the state of Baden Wurttemberg, near Sigmaringen. I have yet to visit Altheim but hope to go soon. Yesterday I was in three nearby villages in Baden Wurttemberg where my Cooper family, who eventually settled in the Shenandoah Valley, were from. I had always assumed the Coopers were English, but through my tree research, I now know they were German, "Kieffer," and had lived very close to where I live now.

Like you all, I'm fascinated with putting the family pieces of the puzzle together to understand my ancestors' part in the migration process, learn about their history, and appreciate their struggles.

I thank you for welcoming me into the family fold.

mit freundlichen Grüßen

Michele Winter

NOTE FROM BERNIE SCHIEFER

I became interested in my mother's family history as I knew it dated back to mid 1685 and was able to trace the Fry history easier than my father's history. His side came from Germany in 1865 making it far more difficult to trace his ancestry.

I had met more Fry relatives including my great uncle Russell Fry who, I was told, was the head chemist for Dupont when they discovered nylon. My grandfather was the Rev. Dr. Frank Swenk Fry who was the Pastor of the Staten Island Dutch Reformed Church who baptized me. He was also a close friend of Rev. Dr. Norman Vincent Peale of the Marble Collegiate Church in NYC. I also had a great uncle Henry Fry, whom I never met, who had a Doctorate in music.

Thank you to those who helped on my Query from the November Newsletter asking for help from my HFFA cousins to assist me with my SAR application. Marian Sarantha from Buffalo, WY and Jack Lauman of Blaine, WA provided great help. I am very grateful.

News from Eagle Lake, TX Dear Cousins,

Thank you so much for your cards, your donations to your favorite charity in Ken's name, and the heartfelt notes. I regret I cannot write each note individually but my mind just won't co-operate.

Please know I am proud to have such a compassionate family. God bless each of you.

Helen Craig

Helen asked me to write this for her as her life has made a drastic change. She never thought that Ken would die before her. I personally want to thank all of you for the support you gave her. It helped her get through some of the worst days. Ralph and I are hoping that she will be up to coming to the reunion so that she can give each one of you a hug. On a personal note: I can't imagine how hard it is for her to lose someone that she depended on for 59 years.

Ralph and Marti Frye

Posted on our HFFA Facebook page, 2 Feb 2017:

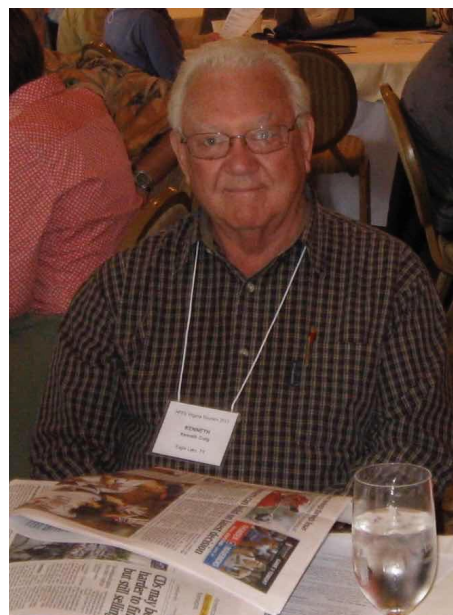

I would like to thank all the HFFA members for their support during our family emergency. Ralph and I are now back in Lafayette. Boy is it good to be home. I still have not unloaded all the boxes yet but if you need anything just email me. I am looking forward to seeing all of you at the reunion in June.

IN MEMORIAM:

Kenneth Leon Craig

1934 - 2017

Kenneth Leon Craig passed away on 5 Jan 2017 at the VA Medical Center in Houston, TX. He was 82 years old. His body has been donated for research to the Baylor College of Science.

Ken was born on 4 Feb 1934 in Silverdale, MO, the only child of Clyde Theola Pruitt and Odell Craig.

Ken served in the Korean War and was stationed in Tokyo, Japan as a medical technician. He joined the Laughlin Clinic in Eagle Lake, TX and worked there until his retirement.

He was an active member in many local organizations, including the Lions' Club and the American Legion. Both Ken and his wife Helen also served as volunteers at the Prairie Edge Museum. Many knew Ken from his having served for many years as an election judge. Ken and Helen lived in Eagle Lake for 57 years.

He is survived by his wife Helen Louise Frye Craig, whom he married on 9 Aug 1957 in Cape Girardeau, MO. Also surviving are two brothers-in-law Dan Frye (HFFA) of Ft. Myers, FL and Ralph E. Frye (HFFA) and his wife Marti (HFFA) of Lafayette, LA. He has many nieces, nephews, and countless friends.

Philip Morgan Friden

1955 - 2016

Phillip M. Friden, Ph.D., 61, of Bedford, Mass. and Cranberry Lake, N.Y. passed away peacefully on December 26, 2016, at Lahey Hospital in Burlington.

Known to many as "Phil" but to family and long-time friends as "Pip", he was born on December 10, 1955 at East Chicago, Indiana, the son of James E. and E. Elizabeth "Betty" Friden.

After attending grammar schools in Illinois and New York, he was graduated from Palisades High School in Pacific Palisades, California. He received his bachelor's degree in biochemistry and molecular biology from the University of California at Santa Barbara, and his doctorate in biochemistry/molecular biology at SUNY – Stony Brook. He received an NIH Grant to pursue post-doctorate research at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (M.I.T.). It was at Stony Brook that he met his wife, Dr. Marilyn Francis. They were married in 1986 at Westbury, Long Island, New York.

He began his career as one of the founding scientists at Alkermes, Inc. in Waltham, where he initiated and led a research team focused on the delivery of therapeutics across the blood-brain barrier. He was then named Vice-President of Research and Development at Periodontix, where he managed a team focused on the development of multiple novel peptide-based treatments for chronic infections.

Following this, he was Vice President of Biology for Scion Pharmaceuticals of Boston, a start-up biotechnology company focused on small molecule drug discovery of ion channel modulators. This led to a position as Vice President of Research & Development and Clinical Operations at Transport Pharmaceuticals in Framingham, which included responsibility for development of all new products, two of which went from concept into clinical testing.

At the time of his passing, he was the Vice President of Research and Development at Benu BioPharma in Natick, where he also oversaw clinical trials of new drugs. He was an inventor on 19 issued U.S. patents and has published more than 50 peer-reviewed papers and book chapters.

Many who knew him as a seasonal resident at Cranberry Lake in New York's Adirondack Mountains were unaware of his vast scientific accomplishments, as he rarely talked about his work. He loved the family camp on Union Point, which he and his brother, Mark Andrew Friden (HFFA), inherited when their father passed away in 2000. They made numerous improvements to the property. No matter whether he was in his boat out on the lake, enjoying a picnic lunch at Burnt Rock, hiking to Sliding Rock, or just enjoying time at camp, he was always happiest at Cranberry Lake.

Dr. Friden is survived by his wife Marilyn, daughter Kaitlyn, and brothers Mark Friden and Peter Ford (and wife, Debi). He also is survived by step-brother Charlie Martin, and step-sisters Laura Martin, Julie Miske and Francie Miske. He also leaves three nieces, Erika O'Hearn, Jana Archer and Anne Ford. He is predeceased by his parents (Jim Friden and Betty Friden Martin) and step-parents (Mayfred Miske Friden and Chuck Martin).

Dr. George de Benneville 1703 - 1793

Late this past December I was looking into the Bertolet family and came across a very remarkable person, Dr. George de Benneville, 1703 - 1793. While we are not directly related to him, he could be considered a "shirt-tail" relation. His wife, Esther Bertolet is the sister of Susannah Sophia Bertolet, the wife of Jacob Frey, 1725 - 1770. (Heinrich → William → Jacob). Therefore Dr. de Benneville is close, but not part of our extended family.

When you hear about Dr. de Benneville, we might want to claim him as "ours" because he had such an interesting life and did some very important things. I don't want to pass off what I'm about to share with you as personal research or scholarship on my part. I'll share what I found on Find a Grave that spiked my interest of this man, and then what I found on Wikipedia.

First of all, on Find a Grave #13927746 we have the following:

"Theologian and doctor: He was born in England of French Huguenot refugees, the last of 9 children. Both parents died while he was a child and he was taken in by a friend of his mother and his godmother, Queen Anne of England, and was later cared for by an uncle. He was sent to sea at the age of 12, when a trip to Africa would change him for life.

"He came back to Europe and began preaching what would later become the Universalist Faith. He was arrested in France and narrowly missed beheading for heresy and was granted a pardon by King Louis XV, while actually on the executioner's scaffold, due to his noble upbringing.

"He travelled to Germany and Holland before arriving at Philadelphia about 1741 in search of religious freedom. He befriended many Native Americans and eventually produced a "cross-referenced dictionary of Native American, German and English languages". While with the "Indians", he learned their healing methods through the use of medicinal herbs and plants.

"He moved to Bristol Township, PA in 1757. where he practiced medicine and ran an apothecary in Philadelphia. Although he supported the "colonists", he treated casualties at the Battle of Germantown and offered his family burying ground to Gen. Howe for the burial of Gen. Agnew and his aide who were killed in the battle.

"He later produced a 140-page book (the Pennsylvanian Physician) that is kept at the College of Physicians in Philadelphia. Amongst its pages are notes on the treatment of Gen. George Washington.

“He is best known as the founder of the Universalist Church in America, and more than a dozen books from 1791 to 2003 make references to Dr. de Benneville.”

I hope you can sense my amazement when I read this. Then it got me to check further into his life and I found the following on Wikipedia:

“George de Benneville was born in London in 1703 to aristocratic Huguenot French parents in the court of Queen Anne.

“While serving as a sailor during his adolescent years, de Benneville traveled around the world and began to question his religion and compare it to other world religions. He shed his Huguenot religion, developed his own ideas about Christianity, and became a preacher while still in his teens.

“De Benneville had a mystical experience and later a near death experience which he described in The Life and Trance of Dr. George De Benneville. These experiences convinced him that Hell is for purification, not punishment, and that, ultimately, all will be united with God. He believed that God is absolutely good and in his love would never condemn any human to eternal damnation. He also preached that each human being has a dualistic nature; the outer, flesh-and-blood person is subject to the evils of the world and may choose to do good or to do wrong, while the inner, spirit-like person is crafted by God and is perfect, immaculate, and holy, and cannot be damned. Therefore, all human beings experience salvation.

“Religious authorities in several nations were disturbed by evangelists such as de Benneville, and he was sentenced to death more than once. He preached and practiced medicine in France and Germany.

“After completing medical training in Europe, de Benneville immigrated to the American colonies during the mid-eighteenth century with others seeking religious tolerance.

“He settled in Pennsylvania and worked as a physician and apothecary, using free time to continue his Universalist preaching. De Benneville socialized and traded herbal preparations with Native American groups in the area. His beliefs stressed that all people everywhere are loved by God, and cultures, races, and sexes have no bearing on the worth of a human being. His beliefs stated clearly that the physical body is merely one part of a person.

“George de Benneville died at home in Pennsylvania in 1793.”

A Hero from The Greatest Generation; Richard S. Fry:

Story comes from Seeking Family.com

Richard S. Fry graduated from East Sparta Special School (Stark County, OH). He also attended Culver Military Academy from 1937-40 and The Ohio State University until he left to enlist in the United States Army Corps in March, 1942 as a flying cadet.

After his basic training, Fry was promoted to first lieutenant. In August 1943, he was assigned to Pueblo Army Air Base for special combat training to become a B-24 pilot. He later was assigned to the 736 Bomb Squad, 454th Bombardment Group, 15th Air Force as a group leader. He led his group of B-24 Bombers -- as many as 800 pilots -- over Germany, Austria and Romania.

Fry received many commendations and honors for his service to the country, and he made history on Nov. 17, 1944, when he flew "The Joker" on a mission over the Alps. Running out of gas on the way back, he landed the B-24 on the coast of the Adriatic Sea, with minor damage to the plane and without a scratch on any of his crew members. In training, it was said the plane could not be landed with four dead motors, but Fry accomplished the feat.

He was promoted to Captain on Jan. 17, 1945. Just before a leave, Fry volunteered to lead his group on a mission over Vienna, Austria. It was during that mission his group received a direct hit by a German 88 anti-aircraft shell to the "Terrible Terry," the name of their aircraft. Five of the 12 crew members parachuted and were captured, and the others were killed and officially listed as killed in action on Feb. 14, 1945. One can only conjecture as to what type of community and business leader this brave, young man would have been had circumstances allowed him to return home.

The Human Side of our Family Line

No matter how we spell it, Frey, Frye, or Fry, there is a Human side to our extended family. Joe Rusaw Human (1901 - 1973) married Alzina May Fry (1902 - 2000). Apparently we had to marry into the Human side. Hurray for being Human.

9. Alzina May Fry / Joe Rusaw Human
10. Maynard Bernard Human / Wilma Gladys Van Ness
11. Kay Lynn Human / James Howard Frampton
11. Sue Elaine Human / Eric Watson

And, then we were no longer Human. Find a Grave boasts only 731 Human graves in the United states, so we should rejoice that at least four of our cousins are indeed, Human.

I noticed that there aren't any Speers in that family line. We must not be Human.

2017 HFFA HANNIBAL REUNION

Registrations for the Reunion are coming in at the rate of 1 or 2 per week. As this is being written in the middle of February, the current number is 20. We expect to see more come in when we get closer to June, but you'll have to remember that planning and reservations for activities must be firmed up at least a month ahead. With that in mind, please send your registrations in by early May.

Mark Twain Walking Tour

Our host and planner, Anne Pasieka, has found an additional activity that might interest some people. It is a walking tour of Mark Twain historical places in Hannibal. Everything is within one block of the Interpretive Center. The walking tour includes the homes of Mark Twain, Becky Thatcher, and Huck Finn, the Justice of the Peace Office of Mark Twain's father, and the museum that contains artifacts of Norman Rockwell as well as Mark Twain.

The regular price of the tour, which includes all the admissions is $11 but if we have a group of 15, the price is only $8 adult, $6 children, and Free for those under five. To get the discounted rate, please contact Anne Pasieka (info on our back page) in advance so she will know that there are at least 15 people interested.

All these sites close at 5:00 PM so the best time to take the walking tour would be Wednesday or Sunday since we have HFFA things to do Thursday thru Saturday.

Hotel Reservations:

There is a block of rooms and a Hospitality Room available at

Quality Inn and Suites
120 Lindsey Dr. (Highway 36)
Hannibal, MO 63401

Group Name: HFFA
Please call the hotel directly at 573-221-4001 (NOT the toll free number.)

The negotiated rate is $89 per room plus tax. Breakfast is included. This special pricing will expire on 12 May 2017.
